Taipei Representative Office in Greece will begin to accept Huayu Enrichment Scholarship applications from Feb. 1 to March 31, 2015

To encourage international students to undertake Huayu (Mandarin) courses in the Republic of China (Taiwan); in order to provide them with opportunities to increase their understanding of Taiwanese culture and society, and to promote mutual understanding and interactions between Taiwan and the international community, Taiwan's Ministry of Education has established the Huayu Enrichment Scholarship program.

Each recipient will be awarded a monthly stipend of 25,000 NTD. Huayu Enrichment courses will include a summer term (June and July or July and August), along with short term classes, which may last 3, 6 or 9 months to a year respectively.

International applicants above the age of 18, who possess a high school diploma or above, have shown excellent academic performance, and are of good moral character are eligible.

Applicants need to submit the following documents to local embassies or missions between February 1st and March 31st:

- a. An application form.
- b. A photocopy of his/her passport or any other documents that can verify the nationality of the applicant.
- c. A photocopy of the certificate of the highest credential and transcript.
- d. A photocopy of the applications to an accredited Mandarin Language Center in Taiwan.
- e. Other documents required by local embassies or missions.
