To Whom It May Concern,

2012 Prospectus and Application Forms

I hope this letter finds you in the best of health. I would like to take this opportunity to introduce to you Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University (APU) of Japan.

APU was founded as a model for international education in not only the Asia-Pacific region, but also the world. Since its inception in April 2000, APU has welcomed thousands of international students from around the globe to study in its bilingual, multicultural campus with the goal of producing future leaders for the world's ever internationalizing society. Currently 47% of APU's student body comes from outside Japan and represents nearly 90 different countries and regions from across the globe. APU's diverse campus contributes to our ability to produce multifaceted and often times multilingual graduates who for the last 3 years have an unprecedented job placement rate of over 95% with the help of our career services.

I understand that you must be extremely busy, but I hope that as APU continues to build on its extensive track record of producing talented young leaders for the 21st century, that you may be able to pass on this information to any parties that may be interested in an international education or studying in Japan. Please find enclosed the application forms and brochures for 2012 spring and fall enrollment.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate in contacting the Admissions Office. We, the staff and faculty at APU, strive to assist and support any individual who hopes to further their studies at APU.

I thank you for your time and any support that you may be able to lend us.

Sincerely,

Mitsuru HITOMI (Mr.)
Manager of Admissions Office
Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University

Undergraduate & Graduate Programs 2012

Why APU?

Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University, or APU, is without doubt Japan's most forward thinking university; an achievement attributed to the revolutionary education system and the international diversity of our faculty and students. This exciting and dynamic multicultural environment is unique to APU.

Student Life

Clubs and Activities

A wide range of multicultural events including performances, festivals and camps are held throughout the year showcasing the rich diversity of our student body. We encourage everyone to get involved in one or more of the over 160 clubs to enhance their experience, learn something new and simply to have fun.

Beppu City

The city of Beppu is one of Japan's most popular tourist destinations being the home of a world's second largest outflow of hot springs (onsen) and some of the most spectacular scenery. A large international student population and constant influx of tourists make Beppu one of the most lively and cosmopolitan cities in Japan.

Accommodation

Our modern dormitory, AP House, is a space for multicultural community life, and home to about 1,300 APU international and Japanese students. International students are guaranteed a room for their first year at APU. The dormitory features private single rooms and shared rooms to promote cultural exchange.

International Student Support

APU offers an extensive range of services to assist international students as they settle in to their new life in Japan. Through orientations, guidance sessions and comprehensive student support, we aim to help students adjust to their new life here as quickly as possible, encouraging them to make the most of what Japan and APU has to offer.

Undergraduate Programs

APS

College of Arts and Social Sciences
• Bachelor of Social Science

The Asia Pacific has now become the main engine driving the global economy for the 21st century. Globalization and information technology are surpassing political and cultural boundaries and yet problems of poverty, disease and the effects of climate change still remain. APS offers a broad range of social science courses to enable students to understand a vast array of global issues and develop new ways of thinking to face these challenges head on.

Students can combine study within the four main areas below with advanced skills in language, information technology and research, providing the basis for a wide variety of careers in government, international organizations, multinational corporations, the media and the travel industry. Many students also continue on to graduate studies.

APS MAJORS

*Culture, Societies and Media
International Relations and Peace Studies*

Environmental and Development Hospitality and Tourism

APM

College of International Management
• Bachelor of Business Administration

As global markets continue their shift towards the Asia Pacific, graduates are in increasing need of specialized business knowledge, an understanding of and sensitivity to other cultures as well as the ability to communicate and negotiate in English and other languages with businesspeople of the world. It is therefore essential to be up to date with the region's increasingly multinational environment which is fast becoming the driving force of the global economy.

APM aims to cultivate global perspectives and problem-solving skills in a generation of leaders who can create new values for business in the Asia Pacific region. Course subjects are designed to give an understanding of leading corporate management trends that can be applied in an international context. Students in APM begin their studies tackling concepts of corporate strategy and core management and then branch out into their specialized fields of interest.

APM MAJORS

Strategic Management and Organization

*Accounting and Finance
Innovation and Economics
Marketing*

Dual Language Education

No Japanese language ability is required for admission to APU as almost all classes are offered in both English and Japanese. At the undergraduate level, students enter their chosen course on either an English or Japanese language basis and then given training in the alternative language if need be. As each student's language proficiency progresses, specialized classes can then be taken in either language. Within the Graduate School all classes are conducted entirely in English.

Multicultural Environment

The campus is a doorway to the wider world attracting students and teachers from around ninety countries and regions, making up nearly 50% of our student body and faculty. This rich mixture of languages and the mingling of different cultures has lead to APU's campus being known as 'the global village'.

Preparing you for Tomorrow's World

An APU education integrates language skills and international knowledge and is delivered at the heart of a truly multicultural environment. Our students are taught to utilize their newfound skills for practical use in today's ever internationalizing world.

Career Success

APU has an unprecedented career success rate for international students. For the last 3 years, over 95% of our graduates using the careers service have gained employment upon graduation. Our Careers Office offers comprehensive support through internships, lectures and also by attracting hundreds of companies to campus each year.

Tuition Reduction Scholarships

APU awards many of its international students with generous scholarships which are given in the form of a tuition reduction. The scholarships are awarded in the following five scales: 30%, 50%, 65%, 80% & 100%.

APU Overseas Office/Representatives

There are APU offices in the following countries and territories. Students are encouraged to make inquiries at their local offices where possible. Students in countries without an APU office or representative should contact the APU Admissions Office directly.
